

Donald Trump Presidential Stress Cube Relieves the Nation of its Stress over Elections

ROCKVILLE, MD, USA, October 14, 2015 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Rockville, MD – The Donald Trump Presidential Stress Cube is a satire gift for anyone who is experiencing anxiety about the Presidential Elections in 2016. This product consists of a custom-printed stress cube with 5 images of Donald Trump in various states of anxiety, and one image of “You’re Fired” to complete a total of six sides.

Accompanying this stress cube is a satirical booklet of exercises that one could perform to relieve day-to-day stress, while reading about Donald Trump and his own bouts of anxiety in this world. As this is an executive gift for people with executive issues, it also comes with a decorative stand milled from mahogany with the inscriptions “Mr. President” on one side if you like Donald Trump and “Not So Fast” on the other, if you don’t. The cube sits proudly on this stand, and whichever way you spin it, there is good humor for all political persuasions. In this way, the cube aims to please all of the people all of the time, which so far has been an impossible achievement in the history of democratic nations.

Still in the dark as to what this gift is all about? For those who remember the Pet Rock phenomena of the 1970's, the Donald Trump Presidential Stress Cube should ring a lot of nostalgic bells in the minds of reformed hippies and savvy journalists. It is an ideal gift for the holidays, perfect for the overbearing boss, the dreadful gift pool at work, or anyone who wants to get something original without spending a fortune. Priced affordably at $29.95, this gift comes nicely packaged with patriotic ribbon and sent anywhere in the continental USA.

On a serious note, the mahogany pedestals were milled by the helpful hands at Woodworkers Club of Rockville, MD. Their CNC router did an excellent 21st century manufacturing job of creating the pocket which holds the cube and the inscription above it – all done by a computer design and an advanced router.

This product is being sold on Ebay, Amazon.com and Etsy, but it is available at the low price of $29.95 through the website at:
