

New Personalized Family Tree Gifts Complete with Birthstones Launched at LovelsARose.com

Three-Dimensional Designs Celebrate Family Heritage

WARRENVILLE, ILLINOIS, USA, October 15, 2015 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Warrenville, IL. October 15, 2015. Two new Personalized Family Trees debut at www.LovelsARose.com. The most recent creations by the artisans of LovelsARose.com join the family tree products that have decorated homes and warmed hearts for over 40 years.

The Framed Personalized Family Tree, one of the two new designs, dons a beautiful wooden frame that surrounds the artfully designed, three-dimensional, black, hand-wrought metal tree. The frame is available in mahogany, black, white, and gold finishes. The additional new comer to the line of family trees is the Personalized Family Christmas Tree. Available as a plaque or beautifully framed in walnut the tree is beautifully crafted in three-dimensional metal. Included with the new family trees is a 1.5" x 5" engraved plate with the family surname, date, and title of the occasion such as 25th Wedding Anniversary or Christmas 2015. The family members' sparkling birthstones are set underneath their names and birth dates which are engraved on magnetic discs and hearts in golden bronze or silver. Families get to decorate their tree just how they want it and the young children get to participate in placing the names around the branches. The family members become the treasures decorating the tree and their heritage lives on year, after year, as names and birthstones are easily added when new members enter the family circle.

The original manufacturing process used to produce the first family trees required meticulous hand work. The volume of orders from all over the world required the creation of new inventive, priority-engraving techniques. After years of experimentation, new technologies have been developed to allow for the production of the new versions.

"We are so proud to introduce our newest family tree designs! The trees are a way for families to create an heirloom that will last for generations," stated Sid Fey, CEO. "Everywhere in the world this is a lasting way to honor what is cherished most – our families," concluded Fey.

LovelsArose.com's mission is the celebration of family and relationships. In addition to the family trees, www.LovelsARose.com is home to the personalized 24kt gold roses. The real, preserved gold roses are fully dipped or trimmed in 24kt gold, platinum, or silver. The company is the only company in the world that embellishes the flower petal with personalized message of love.
