

Dianca Denay - Anti-Bullying Music Achievement

The Euro-Canadian singer and songwriter known as Dianca Denay has released her new LP record, "Halo the Painkiller, No. 2."

VANCOUVER, BC, CANADA, October 15, 2015 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Panther Records is pleased to announce the release of Dianca Denay's 1st full-length album "Halo The Painkiller No.2".

Dianca Denay is a Euro-Canadian singer and songwriter. Before her love of music Dianca thought her future was in psychology. That changed when she met with an accident that broke her neck. Instead of giving up Dianca found inspiration in music. She released her debut EP Halo The Painkiller in 2010 and her first full-length independent album "Halo The Painkiller No.2" July 1, 2015.

Already at Amazon, iTunes and Spotify this album will soon be available worldwide. It contains 14 original Dianca Denay tracks. Sean McCauley, lead press release writer of MondoTunes cites: "The LP has been proudly published on the Panther Records independent music label outside the influence of the corporate music industry. Colorfully creative, full of bass-driven back beats and characterized by an overarching feminine mystique, "Halo the Painkiller, No. 2" is a clear sign that Dianca Denay has arrived."

Dianca describes her music of her 1st LP as weaving elements of inspiration, tragedy, pain and perseverance into original songs with sounds of pop, hip hop, dance and European World flavours.

During a break in the session with McCauley when asked to comment on the themes of her new LP, Denay states: "Some of my songs such as Painkiller, Pulse and Addictions are metaphors for surviving against all odds and overcoming adversity. I would like to help raise understanding and awareness around life challenges that are so prevalent such as bullying, addictions and other types of struggles. I want to help show how people can get the supports they need to cope and to spread the message that there is hope."

Dianca Denay has variety of musical influences such as Rihanna, Alicia Keys, Madonna, Kanye West, Beyonce, Tupac Shakur, Jay-Z, Abba, Liona Boyd and much more. She has a growing fan base on Twitter, YouTube and ReverbNation to name a few.

She is often quoted as saying, "All it takes is just one person to believe in you even if that one person is yourself." Dianca hopes her music will reach out and help at least one person out there who is experiencing struggles or being bullied. "That will be my anti-bullying music achievement" she declares.

Today Dianca is in full production on her 2nd LP "Uno". "This album promises to be full of upbeat tempo, lyrics and amazing collaborations with up and coming hip hop artists" comments Denay. Her early released single 'My Mamas' has already charted in the World Breakout Charts Top Ten and Top 30 Urban. Dianca leaves us with a sneak peak mobile ringtone video from her early released single 'My Mamas' called 'Living In A Hell Hole'.
