Dr. Joseph Castleberry Spoke Out On Behalf Of Immigrants In An Interview On America's News HQ With Emmy Award Winner Fox News Anchor Kelly Wright

NASHVILLE, TENNESSE, USA, October 22, 2015 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Dr. Joseph Castleberry, spoke out recently on behalf of immigrants in an interview on the Fox News Channel program America's News HQ. Dr. Castleberry, speaking with Emmy award winner Kelly Wright stated the following. "If you look back at America's history, immigrants have always been a source for the renewal of our deepest values. Immigrants have always come to America looking for an opportunity, they tend to come with a strong religious faith, they tend to be moral people who work hard and have great values. They come here because they want to be Americans." By renewing America's historic identity as e pluribus unum, one nation made up of many peoples, Castleberry explains "they not only become Americans themselves, they help America continue to be the nation its founders envisioned."

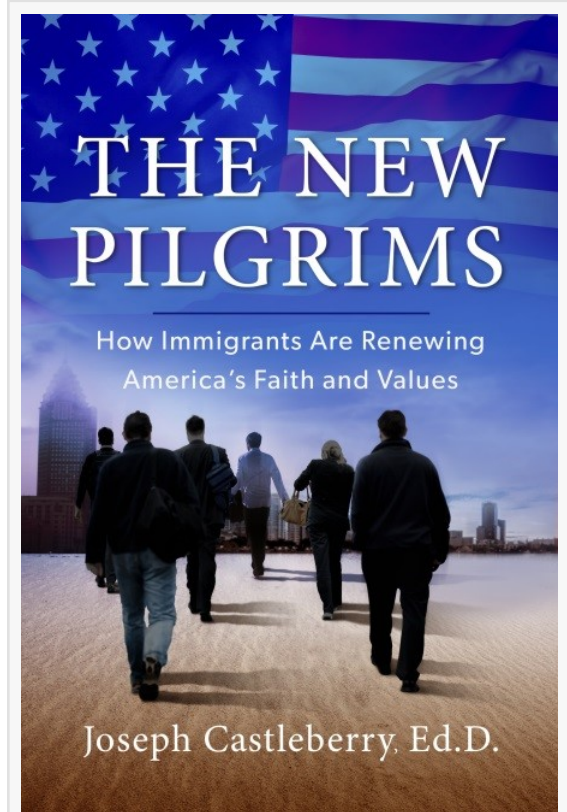

Dr. Castleberry, President of Northwest University and author of the recently released book titled The New Pilgrims states the "The New Pilgrims focuses on many of the ways immigrants are giving America new hope and restoring our most precious values"
