

Church's Chicken® Brings Back its Chicken Fried Steak— And People Love It!

Church's Chicken brings back its irresistible favorite, the Chicken Fried Steak Platter for a limited time, starting October 26.

ATLANTA, GEORGIA, UNITED STATES OF AMERICA, October 22, 2015 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Church's Chicken is giving its guests a delicious new way to get into their comfort zone with the return of one of its menu favorites, the Chicken Fried Steak platter. The limited-time meal offer features tender, savory beef, breaded and fried to perfection, plus two of Church's® classic sides plus a signature honey butter biscuit, starting at the unbeatable price of just $3.69.

“Our Chicken Fried Steak has long been a fan favorite,” said Jennifer Chasteen, Senior Director, Brand & Product Strategy at Church's. “We're ecstatic to bring back this unique, home style offering at an incredible value for our guests.”

Church's Chicken Fried Steak platter is the perfect solution for those looking for a change of pace. The platter features Chicken Fried Steak smothered in white country gravy, plus creamy mashed potatoes, fresh coleslaw and a signature honey butter biscuit.

“As we are approaching the cooler months this warm and hearty feast serves up a generous helping of the comfort food that our guests love, but in a delightfully unexpected way,” added Chasteen.

This incredible deal isn't going to be around for long. The limited-time Chicken Fried Steak platter will be available at participating Church's Chicken restaurants starting October 26, while supplies last. Pricing and availability for the offer may vary based on location.
