There were no rule changes for this year's lottery. And the same countries (and islands) that were ineligible last year are still ineligible this year. They are: Anguilla, Bangladesh, Brazil, Canada, China (Mainland Born), Columbia, Bermuda, British Virgin Islands, Cayman Islands, Dominican Republic, Ecuador, El Salvador, Falkland Islands, Gibraltar, Great Britain, Haiti, India, Jamaica, Mexico, Montserrat, Nigeria, Pakistan, Peru, Philippines, Pitcairn, South Korea, St. Helena, Turks And Caicos Islands, United Kingdom (except Northern Ireland), and Vietnam.

According to author J. Stephen Wilson, "The existence of the diversity visa lottery program for next year, is still in doubt." He continued, "However, since the start of the post-Obama administration will not begin until January 2016 there will be no opportunity for a Republican administration to terminate the program, assuming a GOP candidate is elected President. Therefore, the green card lottery system will likely remain intact through calendar year 2016."
