

America's Home Place Announces New Florida Product Line

Featuring beautiful "Floridian" architecture, the fifteen all-new floor plans were designed with central Florida's lifestyle in mind.

PORT ORANGE, FL, USA, October 28, 2015 /EINPresswire.com/ -- America's Home Place, one of the nation's top builders of custom homes on clients' property and in select communities, today announced the introduction of a new product line designed exclusively for the central Florida market.

Featuring beautiful "Floridian" architecture, the fifteen all-new floor plans were designed with central Florida's lifestyle in mind. Home buyers will be thrilled to find open gourmet kitchens, impressive master suites, innovative baths, and great rooms designed for entertaining and family gatherings. "With the introduction of a dedicated regional product line we're demonstrating a long-term commitment to serving the custom housing needs of central Floridians," says Steve Nordstrom, AHP's Division President. "Whether a primary inland home or an elaborate coastal project, we will deliver great quality at a surprisingly competitive price."

The plans range in living area from 1,800 to 3,000 square feet, in a variety of configurations. As with all America's Home Place designs, the new plans are available for customization to meet the client's needs and vision. Additionally, the company offers extensive decor options through its design showrooms. "We know our clients want to incorporate their own ideas into a custom home," adds, Nordstrom. "We like to be the builder that says 'yes' to the changes that make their home truly a reflection of their personalities and lifestyle."

The company's first central Florida office is located in its award-winning model home in Ormond Beach, just north of Daytona, Florida. The impressive Curacao model is among the first of the new Florida plans to have been constructed by AHP- and was subsequently honored with the Grand Champion Award in the Volusia County Parade of Homes.

Founded in 1972 in Gainesville, Georgia, America's Home Place has constructed thousands of new homes on customer's land and within select communities throughout the eastern United States. The Company's central Florida office serves customers from Palm Coast south to Titusville and inland to Deland. In addition to opening operations in Ormond Beach, the company has recently chosen a location for a showroom in Port Orange as part of its plan to expand throughout Florida in the coming years.

America's Home Place's award-winning model/sales office is open daily at 101 Briargate Look in Ormond Beach, Florida. For more information about America's Home Place and its thirty-six Sales Centers throughout the United States, please visit www.AmericasHomePlace.com or phone 800-AHP-Home.
