

Chamber of Commerce Members and Area Businesses are Invited to a Special Reception

Tuesday, Nov. 17th, members of the Clearwater Business community are invited to attend a reception at the newly opened Scientology Public Information Center .

CLEARWATER, FL, UNITED STATES, October 27, 2015 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Located at 500 Cleveland Street in the Historic Clearwater Bank Building, the reception will provide a forum for networking, as well as educational information about the Church of Scientology and its humanitarian programs. There is no cost to attend.

Scientology Public Information Center at the Historic Bank of CW

The Reception will begin at 6pm with hors d'oeuvres and beverages. Guests will receive a brief introduction to the center and what information it provides to visitors.

The Scientology Public Information Center houses four interactive displays, with close to 300 videos on Dianetics and Scientology tenets, Churches around the world, the Church's humanitarian programs and Scientology's founder, Mr. L. Ron Hubbard.

Following the reception, guests will proceed to the six adjacent humanitarian program centers, each dedicated to addressing specific social ills in the society, including: drug abuse, human rights violations, mental health advocacy and criminal rehabilitation which are open to the public.

Since its opening on July 11, 2015, the centers have welcomed more than 16,000 guests from all walks of life; human rights organizations, drug education associations, hospitality professionals, chefs, restaurateurs and local social groups.

If you are interested in attending this reception and bringing guests, please contact Amber Skjelset (Manager) at 727-467-6966 or e-mail her at amber@cos.flag.org. Space is limited.

The Church of Scientology Flag Service Organization

The Church of Scientology Flag Service Organization is the international religious retreat for Scientologists all over the world. This Clearwater Church makes its historic Fort Harrison available free of charge to non-profit organizations to hold community events and supports area non-profits. Scientology's founder, L. Ron Hubbard once said, "A community that pulls together can make a better society for all."
