

KHB Berkley Heneberg Partners - The expansion into new asset classes

KHB Berkley Heneberg Partners - We have expanded our global asset approach through advisory & allocation in the Farming Sector

LONDON, LONDON, UNITED KINGDOM, October 30, 2015 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Demand for agriculture products is primed for growth as the global population is growing at 25 million people per year.

The KHB Berkley Heneberg Partners expansion into advising opportunities in agriculture and new energy is one of the biggest, if not the biggest step we took since our inception.”

Julius Heneberg

Agriculture production will have to double by 2050 leading to higher demand for food, feed and fiber.

KHB Berkley Heneberg Partners has expanded its reach through conducting in-depth analysis of the farmland investment sector and subsequently incorporating this sector in the firm's client advisory strategy.

KHB-BHP has determined that the investments in the farmland sector comply with the company's focus on risk mitigated and profit performance driven opportunities.

In support to the asset expansion KHB Berkley Heneberg Partners (KHB-BHP) has announced the expansion of the Strategic Communications, Energy & Natural Resources Industry Team in Europe with an office in Zurich in the last quarter of 2015.

The head of the new team will be appointed by the KHB Berkley Heneberg Partners Board of Directors after the General Annual Strategy Meeting.
