If you are a Baby Boomer or Retiree looking to work from home and you are seeking an Executive level income, Elite Marketing Alliance can provide that for you

BEVERLY HILLS, CALIFORNIA, UNITED STATES, November 2, 2015 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Never in the history of Home Business has there been more excitement than what is happening within Elite Marketing Alliance.

What is Elite Marketing Alliance?

It is an association of professionals who are independently in business for themselves but who work together as a marketing community while utilizing an extremely powerful automated marketing system that allows members to earn an Executive level of income by working just a few hours per week.

There are numerous six figure earners within Elite Marketing Alliance and some who earn six figures monthly.

So how are they doing that?

We spoke with one member recently and asked that very question.

Here is their response -

"By devoting no more than two to three hours per day, four to five days per week, I am able to earn between ten and twenty thousand dollars per month. This is absolutely real income -- not what I hope to do or what I dream of doing.

We use proven methods that bring interested people to us. We then have them listen to a recorded twenty four minute message which is available 24/7.

If the prospect is interested, their final questions are answered during a live weekly Q&A call and one-on-one by an experienced member and they are then registered in the business. It's really that simple".

The products being sold are high value education and information products which are delivered digitally over the Internet (nothing to stock or inventory). The digital information industry is a ten billion dollar per year industry - - Elite Marketing Alliance's products fall into 3 of the hottest-selling topic categories: Business & Entrepreneurship, Personal Growth, and Health & Wellness.

Elite Marketing Alliance currently offers 5 different product packages ranging from $2000 to $22,000 and they each pay a 100% profit because there is no warehousing or shipping involved nor is there a middleman. All the products are digital and are downloadable to your Kindle, iPad, PC or Laptop.

They deliver using audio/video technology and some are in e book format.
