

Free Italian Classes this fall at Eton Institute in New York:

Learn the Italian language this autumn in New York City and pick up a few tips for your next visit to Italy or your favorite Italian restaurant.

NEW YORK CITY, NEW YORK, UNITED STATES, November 4, 2015 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Eton Institute, a chic language school located in Manhattan, will be opening its doors for the public to learn the Italian language for FREE, throughout the month of November. The institute offers a free language course every month as part of its commitment to make language learning accessible to everyone.

To many, autumn is the best time to visit Italy as the weather is cooler and there is an abundance of food festivals, scenic fall colors in Lazio, rustic villas of Tuscany, the bustling waterways of Venice, and the flirtatious fashion of Rome. What better way to experience the lovely Italian culture than by learning the language.

Denisse Grullon, Marketing Associate at Eton Institute, explained: "Learning a language is a great way to experience different cultures and meet like-minded people with similar interest. In today's fast-paced world, we don't have a lot of time to relax, but by learning a language one can escape to a different world, while gaining the priceless satisfaction of being able to speak in a way you never have."

The free Italian course will be conducted throughout the month, starting November 9th, from 6pm – 7:30pm on Mondays & Wednesdays, and on Saturday 12pm to 3pm.

To book your free place visit <http://americas.etoninstitute.com> or call 855-334-3866 (Eton). Places are limited and will be offered on a first-come first-serve basis.
