STATES, November 10, 2015 /EINPresswire.com/ -- CHICAGO – Nov. 10, 2015 – Adeptia, the leading provider of business-to-business (B2B) data connectivity and integration for non-technical users, today announced that Adeptia CEO Lou Ennuso will be speaking at the Gartner Application Architecture, Development & Integration Summit. Presenting alongside Raman Singh, director of sales engineering at Adeptia, Ennuso will focus on the future of B2B integration and best practices for solving specific challenges in the space, including: customer onboarding, last-mile integration, managing APIs, automating operations, and maintaining security and control. The session will take place on Wednesday, December 2 at 9:30 a.m., and will be followed by an Adeptia product demo showcasing self-service B2B integration.

“Integration—whether of people, information or ideas—is the harbinger of innovation,” said Ennuso. “As we move into a new era of B2B integration, at Adeptia we are constantly examining the ways in which we can help our customers more seamlessly connect with their partners to not only facilitate the sharing of information, but the more efficient enterprise of the 21st century. We look forward to sharing our insight and predictions for the integration space at this year’s AADI Summit.”

The Gartner Application Architecture, Development & Integration Summit will take place from December 1-3 at Caesars Palace in Las Vegas. Adeptia will be located at Booth #500 on the show floor. For more information, please visit www.adeptia.com.
