

Lauren Smith Promoted to Office Manager at Superior Notary Services

Superior Notary Services, industry leaders in mobile notary services, announced today that Lauren Smith has been promoted to office manager of the company.

ST. PAUL, TEXAS, UNITED STATES, November 11, 2015 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Superior Notary Services announced today Lauren Smith has been promoted to office manager of the company. Clay Mason, president and CEO at Superior Notary Services made the promotion public today saying, "We are pleased to report that Lauren Smith is now the new office manager at Superior Notary Services. She has worked extremely hard in helping us to grow and improve our business. Lauren is competent, professional, and exceptionally qualified for this position."

Ms. Smith will now oversee Superior Notary Services operations, ensuring that their clients are provided with the highest quality mobile signing services. Business at Superior has grown considerably since their inception in 2000, especially so over the last year, when the company moved into new headquarters and added an updated client service platform to coordinate and track their services. Ms. Smith will be tasked with ensuring that this growth continues into the future.

Superior is best known in the notary industry for revolutionizing the notary public industry by providing mobile signing services at the time and location of their clients' choosing. Ensuring top quality, timely service for the many Superior Notary customers around the country is a daunting task, but one that Mason believes Ms. Smith will handle professionally and proficiently. "I am confident that Lauren will exceed all of our expectations for this position," added Mason.
