

SARATOGA SPRINGS, NY MILITARY-FRIENDLY REALTOR® JEAN SINGLETON IS PROUD TO SERVE VETERANS AND THEIR FAMILIES

SARATOGA SPRINGS, NY, USA, November 11, 2015 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Jean Singleton, certified Military Relocation Professional & Associate Broker at Ron DiDonna Real Estate & Appraisals is proud to serve Veterans and Their Families.

Jean works with Veterans who are buying and selling their homes and Active-Duty Military who are relocating due to PCS or retirement, whether cross-country, OCONUS or just across town. She was one of the first Real Estate agents in the State of New York to receive her Military Relocation Professional (MRP) Certification. She says, "As the mother of a USMC Veteran, the MRP Certification is very important to me because it helps show my commitment to all our Military Families."

A large percentage of her clients are Military families, especially those who are relocating to work at the Naval Training Facility at NPTU Ballston Spa (Kesselring) and the NSA-Saratoga Springs or Stratton Air National Guard Base. Jean says, "Moving can be stressful for anyone, but both Active Duty & Veteran families often have an additional layer of circumstances added in to their moves, and having an understanding of that helps me make their transitions smoother."
