

Lance Richard, P.A. Expands Personal Injury and Car Accident Practice

Personal injury practice provides personal attention and experienced legal guidance to accident victims.

STUART, FL, US, November 14, 2015 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Attorney Lance Richard of the Stuart, Florida law firm of Lance Richard, P.A. has announced the recent expansion of its personal injury and car accident law practice throughout Florida with new offices, resources and personnel.

"We have recently acquired new office space and personnel to expand our personal injury and car accident practice for clients throughout Florida," said Attorney Lance Richard. "Over the past 20 years, thousands of clients have trusted us to represent them in family law and criminal cases. Many of my clients did not know that our firm also handles personal injury and car accident cases."

The law firm has recently expanded its offices in Stuart, Florida and has hired veteran personal injury paralegal Nita

Brockman to assist Attorney Lance Richard and paralegal Colleen Shaler in representing clients who are the victims of an accident or car crash. Attorney Richard said, "No one should go through the stress and anguish of an accident, losing their income and dealing with the insurance companies and their lawyers on their own." "We have assembled a team of experienced professionals that provide personal attention to injury victims and their families to get them every dollar they deserve."

If you or your family member is the victim of a motor vehicle accident, boating accident, wrongful death or other serious personal injury case, let the professionals at Lance Richard, P.A. provide the guidance and personal attention that is required during difficult times.

"We are fortunate to now have an experienced team working closely with our clients to ensure they receive the best care as we work towards obtaining excellent results for their injury case," said Richard. Lance P. Richard, P.A. is an AV Preeminent rated law firm whose priority is to provide clients with quality legal advice, outstanding customer service, and strong effective advocacy that delivers results.
