Breakout recording artist Etch releases single-with-a-message - Been There Done That from self-titled EP ETCH dropping February 19, 2016

LOS ANGELES, CA, USA, November 19, 2015
/EINPresswire.com/ -- Break out recording artist, Etch, independently releases her third single, Been There Done That, today on iTunes!

The follow up to her popular summer release, Kryptonite, Been There Done That, is an introspective but infectious, fun-loving, pop, hip-hop rock mix that is sure to become another fan favorite.

Written by Etch, Morah Shay and Esjay Jones, Etch describes co-writing Been There Done That as a bit of a cathartic process she describes as follows, "This song is about my life experience of growing up and making mistakes and learning from them. I wanted to make a party song and let everyone know that you can be yourself and still have a great time!"

Bursting onto the LA music scene earlier this summer, the combo of Etch's effortless freestyles and hooks landed her gig's at the infamous Whiskey on Sunset Boulevard and a coveted spot opening for Demi Lovato and Five Seconds of Summer at a popular private event in Southern California.

Etch, the self-adopted nickname adorned from a family member born CHLOE STAR NAKHJAVANPOUR, is a singer, songwriter, talented musician and rising Star as her middle name indicates. Part Persian, part Native American, 18-year old Etch craves for connections with others through her music due to life challenges in her early teen years. "I want to tell my story to everyone. I want people to listen to my music and know that they are not alone. I especially want kids, teens, tweens, college students – everyone to know that I am living proof that you can overcome tough situations in life. Maybe I can make a small difference to someone listening who might be going through some of the things I may have already experienced and survived."

Been There Done That was produced by Trey Vittetoe. The Been There Done That lyric video drops with the single on November 19, 2015, http://youtu.be/Qw-gNAA\_o20.

Etch's next project: her self-titled EP ETCH will be released through Etch Music February 19, 2016.
