LOS ANGELES, CA, USA, November 20, 2015
/EINPresswire.com/ -- Mostly based on the internet, 55printing.com is one of the leader printers online, most of their customers are managed via their website and thanks to this, 55printing marketing manager Julian Alberti decided to promote the Cyber Monday special discount code for all of their customers rather than doing a discounted special promotion for the Black Friday event as usually seen in previous years.

The “Cyber Monday” special discount code offer will only be available on Monday 30th, November, 2015 on orders of $255 or more. May include different products to sum this total to qualify for this huge discount of $55.00 on top of the already discounted prices for printing goods found every day on their website.

On a digital flyer distributed internally to subscribers, all of this information has been disclosed and included a note to please share with friends.

This offer for printing goods has no precedents at 55 printing or any other Low Cost printer online and we are still on time to take advantage of this invitation to save big in printing!
