

Landmark Bingo Introduces Elimination Bingo With 'Wizard of Bingo'

LONDON, UNITED KINGDOM, December 2, 2015 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Landmark Bingo proudly announces the launch of Wizard of Bingo, the brand new Bingo variant. Another stellar addition to the gamut of games offered by Landmark Bingo, this game is based on the theory of elimination bingo.

Wizard of Bingo is a 75 ball game which is simple yet engaging. All the player has to do is buy the tickets and start playing. The game follows the traditional pattern of ball call, with intermittent appearance of the Wizard who curses a number and each cursed number takes away a lifeline from the tickets. So three curses from the Wizard would take all the lifelines ways and burn the ticket out. However, players can save their tickets from burning with the help of Ruby Shoes that actually saves the lifelines of the tickets. There can be multiple winners in a single game and the player left with the maximum number of tickets bags the majority share of the prize amount, followed by the second highest and likewise.

Speaking on this occasion, Neeraj Jha, Director of Landmark Bingo says, "At Landmark Bingo we have always come up with innovative game ideas. Wizard of Bingo is one such game that cuts from the regular run-of-the-mill games by introducing elimination bingo. The game is highly engaging and we hope our players will love the game play experience."

Here are some exciting new elements of the Wizard of Bingo, to watch out for:

The Curse of the Wizard

The animated Wizard comes with the cursed balls that kill lifelines. A player gets three lifelines in total for all tickets. So if they get three curses from the Wizard the ticket will burn.

The Stealing Monkey

Once a player gets a full-house, a Monkey tepidly comes and steals the ticket away. So watch out for the cheeky monkey.

The Ruby Shoe

The Ruby Shoe protects a player from the wrath of the wizard. The tickets blessed with the Ruby Shoe prevents them from burning out. The Ruby Shoe, however, is valid only for 5 ball calls and after that the tickets are vulnerable to Wizard's fury.

The Winners Take

The game can have multiple winners and the player left with the maximum number of card bags the majority share of the prize money. So you don't have to get your tickets daubed.
