

Ready Made Accepted Into the UCF Business Incubation Program

Orlando based Ready Made Inc has been accepted as a client of the UCF Incubator Program and will work to add jobs to Central Florida economy.

ORLANDO, FLORIDA, USA, December 1, 2015 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Ready Made, an Orlando based company developing the world's first fully ready to serve, shelf stable baby bottle, has been accepted into the UCF Business Incubator Program and will be relocating their offices to the Orlando UCF Business Incubation location this month. The UCF Business Incubator was founded in 1999 with the mission to be “a University-driven partnership providing early stage companies with the enabling tools, training and infrastructure to create financially stable high growth/impact enterprises.”

Ready Made is a Florida company founded in 2007 that has funded the research and development of a baby bottle that would allow parents and caregivers to feed children a bacteria free meal anywhere and anytime. The patented Ready Made Baby Bottle eliminates bacteria cross contamination by eliminating the need for assembly or handling of the device. This makes it an ideal humanitarian meal for infants in humanitarian relief and natural disaster relief. Ready Made Ready-To-Feed Baby Bottles are the single most convenient method of feeding a baby a bottle. Ready Made is working to manufacture and distribute these bottles globally with a goal of remaining headquartered in Central Florida.

The UCF Business Incubator program accepts scalable businesses that have potential of generating local jobs. Since 1999, the program has assisted more than 350 early-stage companies, who've sustained nearly 3,700 jobs throughout Central Florida. These companies have also had a total impact on regional economic output (GDP) in the amount of $2.48 billion!

Ready Made has already started working on government grant funding opportunities discovered through their relationship with the UCF Business Incubator. Dr. Corwin Littell, Inventor of the Ready Made Baby Bottle, said he "is very excited to have access to the resources of the UCF Business Incubator Program available to our company. With the help of the program, we are confident that the Ready Made Baby Bottles will be on the shelf and available to those that need them very soon."
