

New! A Sparkling Heel to Hold Her 24k Gold Roses

LovelsARose.com Adds to Its Collection of Personalized Gifts

WARRENVILLE, ILLINOIS, USA, December 3, 2015 /EINPresswire.com/ -- The Silver Sparkle High Heel Vase is a brand new offering at www.LovelsARose.com. This beautifully created vase, combining two of the things that women love – shoes and flowers -- holds the 24k gold roses that are featured at their website store. LovelsARose.com is known for their personalized roses with custom, loving messages like “I Love You” or “Will You Marry Me?” imprinted on the flower petals. These distinctive, personalized roses deliver a message that is spoken from the heart becoming cherished keepsakes.

Available in an array of colors, these blooms are carefully selected, sized, and then preserved at the peak of their beauty and are trimmed or dipped in 24k gold, platinum, or silver. The preserved roses also come in “Flower of the Month” colors. A preserved rose can be sent every month of the year to someone special. The roses then can be displayed in the Silver Sparkle High Heel Vase or one of the many personalized vases available.

“There are a lot of men who probably wish all the flowers they had given the special women in their lives were still alive – so she could see them and be reminded. And there are just as many women who wish they could stop their roses from wilting and being forgotten,” stated Sid Fey, CEO of LovelsARose.com. “They needn’t wish any longer, they should just log on,” added Fey.

The legend of the delicate rose has been for centuries an expression of love, a symbol of perfect happiness, unity, and joy. This romantic bloom is one of the most cherished of all flowers as its language speaks from the heart and soul. Gold, platinum, and silver are precious metals of earth. These timeless symbols of richness, beauty, and love have been wonderfully combined in these roses becoming the messengers to celebrate the one you love and are the perfect gift to celebrate anniversaries, birthdays, weddings, Christmas, and Valentine's Day.

LovelsARose.com is also home to Birthstone & Engraved Family Trees. Family names and birth dates are etched in brass or pewter, or displayed around three-dimensional, artfully created wrought iron trees. Vibrant birthstones then become the treasures decorating the branches. The family trees are given to parents, grandparents, husbands, wives, and employers.

“Our mission has been, is, and will be to celebrate family and relationships. We love working with our customers to create wonderful, personalized gifts that become heirlooms and are cherished for generations,” concluded Fey.
