

LollicupStore.com Launches new Website

Lollicup Store, which sells premium beverage and food service supplies, launches a new and improved website for a hassle-free shopping experience.

CHINO, CALIFORNIA, UNITED STATES, October 28, 2015 /EINPresswire.com/ -- LollicupStore.com launched a brand new website to curb some of the issues customers had with the previous site. While the e-commerce website has been active for several years, LollicupStore.com is always looking for new ways to improve. Here are some of the features of the newly launched store:

Mobile friendliness: The new site can be navigated while using a cellphone or tablet. Customers can now easily shop from their mobile devices, without hassle.

Favorites list: The favorites list allows for customers to select items that they are interested in or would like to save for later. Items can be purchased from a favorites list when a customer adds a product from their list to their cart. Multiple lists can also be maintained.

Rewards program: The new Lollicup Store rewards program, allows for customers to get points toward gift certificate credit when they shop.

Checkout process: Our checkout process is more visually appealing and simple to use. Customers can now enter any promotional codes they may have at any time during the checkout process. Drop-down menus are a thing of the past.

Search Function: The search function of the new website is more simple to use, and brings more accurate search results than Cup Depot, a past e-commerce store, and the previous Lollicup Store website.

Prices on Karat® products: All prices on Karat® disposables have been dropped to help customers maintain their budgets.
