The awards will be given for a range of different achievements by females in diverse industries or community groups. Areas include; Website Design, World News & Education features for online publications and TV Broadcasting, Nurse led MS Clinical Research and 40 years support for young Cubs (Boys) wanting to progress on to become Scouts.

All of the team at Monarchyonline.org are so excited to engage with followers and supporters for the new #Gogirl awards but, also to recognise such amazing females working so hard to make a difference every day. Said Kaz Aston CEO Monarchyonline.org.

The #GoGirl Awards will be presented in early 2016 at a London Mayfair venue and is hoped, combined with another charitable cause that Monarchyonline.org will also be supporting.

Nominations were invited via Monarchyonline.org websites between the 22nd of August until the 26th of September 2015. After an amazing number of nominations for the inaugural Go Girl awards were received, it is hoped that 2015 will be the first many years to recognise inspirational females from over only ten years of age.
