

The Future of Retail is Virtually Upon Us

Shop In Store, Without Leaving your seat!

BOCA RATON, FLORIDA, UNITED STATES, December 7, 2015
/EINPresswire.com -- The Future of Retail is Virtually Upon Us

As the holidays approach at a snowballing rate, just the thought of entering a crowded mall is enough to turn any holiday enthusiast into a Grinch.

Yasmin Clarke of Bee2BeeNetwork.org (www.bee2beenetwork.org) gives us the future of shopping now and retailers and consumers alike are thrilled.

Virtual shopping- though it sounds like something from the Jetsons, is happening now.

Ms. Clarke has created Google-certified, virtual tours starting with Harbourside Place (www.harboursideplace.com) in Jupiter where Bee2Bee Network has opened its campus headquarters.

Yasmine is revolutionizing how we search the internet, shop and even choose a restaurant. She has created the first Virtual Tour Shopping Portal in the country called the B2B Virtual Guide.com and has several virtual tours displayed for Harbourside Place which is home of Tiger Woods' restaurant. The B2B Virtual Guide.com (www.b2bvirtualguide.com) is a total game-changer in way we surf the web.

Additional stores you can virtually tour from the comfort of your home include: Native Visions, John Craig, iClass Eyewear, A Pink Princess & Glitz Girl and Swim N Sport.

On top of the virtual tours, Yasmine Clarke's non-profit organization, Bee2Bee Network is the first "fast track," Google Certified digital agency in the country to introduce youth ages 14-25 to coding and software development within a service learning model and at no cost to them or their families.
