

New American Funding Recognized as a Top Employer in Tustin, CA

New American Funding is pleased to announce that they have once again been selected as one of The Orange County Register's Top Workplaces for 2015.

TUSTIN, CA, USA, December 8, 2015 /EINPresswire.com/ -- New American Funding, a national mortgage banker, is pleased to announce that they have once again been selected as one of The Orange County Register's Top Workplaces for 2015. This is the fourth time that New American Funding has made the list.

The Top Workplaces program is based off employee feedback gathered by a survey administered by Workplace Dynamics, LLP. Workplace Dynamics, LLP is a leading research firm that focuses on organizational health and employee engagement. The goal of the survey is to gauge and measure how employees feel about their workplace. The survey questions gave insight to the workplace experience and also allowed for comments and suggestions from employees at New American Funding.

This is the fourth year New American Funding has made the Top Workplaces list, indicating that Rick and Patty Arvielo's strides to ensure a great corporate culture of family, healthy living and community are working.

"We are thrilled to be recognized as a Top Workplace again. Patty and I think of our employees as our extended family and our goal is to provide a workplace that emulates that feeling," Rick Arvielo said.

New American Funding experienced immense growth this year. They opened up 27 new branches across the nation and hired 800+ new employees. Even through this tremendous growth period, owners Rick and Patty Arvielo still run the company with the same family feel they have had since day one.
