

Relationship Coach Angelia Johnson to be Featured on CUTV News Radio

VANCOUVER, WASHINGTON, USA, December 10, 2015 /EINPresswire.com/ -- There is a difference between listening and waiting for your turn to speak.

Angelia Johnson is a relationship coach that guides couples through the process of developing better communication skills to improve their relationship.

“Ultimately, all relationships boil down to communication,” says Angelia. “If you’re coming to us, there’s nothing wrong with you; you just don’t have the right tools. Even a small change can produce a different outcome.”

Every couple will experience challenges over the course of their relationship. A relationship coach can help you and your partner to overcome the negative habits and behavioral patterns to enjoy a more fulfilling relationship.

“I see more progress in people by focusing on the future rather than focusing on what went wrong,” says Angelia. “If you focus on what you did wrong, you’re not putting energy into what you did right so you can have a better future.

Angelia offers clients the training and experience to cater each session to the individual or couple. She can help reprogram your anxieties so you can be more present in your relationship and more conscious of your partner’s needs. Deep issues can be brought to the surface and dealt with productively with new understanding.

“It teaches you how to hear in a different way so the person speaking feels heard and understood even if there’s a disagreement,” says Angelia.

Ultimately, the client is in control of their session. It’s always about them. It’s never about what Angelia believes the couple should do. The client is the relationship.

“I’m there to be a guide along the way,” says Angelia, “but it’s nice to have an unbiased cheerleader to bounce ideas off of.”

CUTV News Radio will feature Angelia Johnson in an interview with Doug Llewelyn on December 14th at 2pm EST.
