Isela Fernandez Reyes Born and raised in Brooklyn NY moved to the Bronx in 2004. At the tender age of 18 she met her now husband, Edwin Reyes. In 2007, the young couple lost everything and was forced to move into a homeless shelter where they welcomed their first daughter. During this very dark and difficult time in their lives, the couple never gave up on entrepreneurship. However with lack of direction and lack of support their dreams had to be placed on hold. Working as a business banker in Citibank, Isela would talk to business owners daily which gave her the motivation to quit her job and start her first business, Peek-A-Boo Daycare. A year after starting her child care business, Mommiepreneur Success was born. Mommiepreneur is an organization geared towards women entrepreneurs. Isela is now a success coach and Mommiepreneur who helps women find clarity, direction and support in their businesses all while standing out and getting paid!!!
