

ITpreneurs to Host Pre-release Webinars on its Upcoming ITIL® Practitioner Courseware

ROTTERDAM, THE NETHERLANDS, December 14, 2015 /EINPresswire.com/ -- ITpreneurs, the leading provider of IT training content and services, will host 2 webinars on December 17 to showcase the pre-release version of its upcoming ITIL® Practitioner training materials. ITIL Practitioner is a new certification introduced by AXELOS Global Best Practice. It is being developed to help organizations and individuals increase the value they obtain from using ITIL. This certification will be launched in early 2016. ITpreneurs ITIL Practitioner Courseware will be available for licensing to coincide with the launch.

Why build when you can license? By licensing the training content from ITpreneurs, training providers enjoy fast to market advantage. They can begin offering the ITIL Practitioner training to their learners, without needing to pay for the upfront content development costs. Trainers will find this highly interactive course fun to teach. Learners will be more engaging in the class. And they get the tools to start their own improvement initiatives and be prepared to pass the exam.

Join our webinars where our development team will unveil our courseware* in 'Avant-Premiere'. In this one-hour live broadcast, our core development team will showcase the presentation pack, instructor guide and course book. Be the first to get a sneak preview of the instructional design of our courseware*.
