

Tap.Bid To Auction Off Classic 1934 Ford Cabriolet Roadster Convertible

Collectors of classic cars will want to look at the Tap.bid auction on Saturday, December 19th featuring an incredible 1934 FORD CABRIOLET ROADSTER CONVERTIBLE.

FULLERTON, CA, USA, December 17, 2015 /EINPresswire.com/ -- The Auction Place's www.Tap.bid is the online gateway for those wanting to own a piece of history or find a hidden treasure online. The site conducts its specialty auctions every Tuesday at 5:30pm PST and Saturday at 3:00pm PST for savvy buyers who are wanting to acquire anything, including a classic car like Carroll Shelby's personal 1967 Ford Shelby GT500 which recently sold for $170,000.00.

Those who desire to own or are already collectors of classic cars will want to look at the upcoming auction on Saturday, December 19th at 3:00pm. This auction will feature an incredible 1934 FORD CABRIOLET ROADSTER CONVERTIBLE with a flathead V8 engine, a 3-speed manual transmission, all original bench seats, and a deluxe dash, along with original 1932 California license plates. It is a frame off restoration. This classic automobile not only runs wells, but also looks great. For anyone looking to add to their car collection or for a first time collector who wants to own a classic, this one is a trophy-winner for sure.

Tap.bid's upcoming events include something for everyone. For Sci-Fi fans and movie buffs, there will be memorabilia from Star Trek, Star Wars and many other movies with a special auction. Fans will be presented with a unique opportunity to own a Star Trek collection that includes a model of the U.S.S. Enterprise, an autographed photo, a uniform and props from the show, and more as part of a special auction on January 9, 2016.

While www.Tap.bid has expanded the ability to offer online specialty auctions, The Auction Place is one of the best kept secrets in Southern California. Located in Fullerton, right in the center of Orange County, the store itself is over 30,000 sq. ft. of hidden treasures with thousands of Collectables and Memorabilia including Jewelry, Coins, Trains, Hot Wheels, Corgi, Barbie's, Stamps, Postcards, Movie Posters, Original Art, Disney and Sports Memorabilia plus other incredible treasures. According to Craig Robinett who oversees the family-run business, "We are a toy store for adults."

The Auction Place is known for their fair and honest evaluations as a one-stop shop for those who desire to sell a collection or just place their unique treasures on consignment. They are a licensed and bonded auction house who purchase estates and provide estate sales. The company provides free appraisals and due diligence to determine the value and authenticity of all items. For those who love the experience of a live auction, The Auction Place offers live auctions every Saturday at 3:00pm at their facility located at 1160 East Ash Ave. in Fullerton, CA 92831.
