

Flippers Pizzeria Supports Second Harvest Food Bank for Fourth Consecutive Year

The pizzeria encourages support from the local community to help the worthy cause

ORLANDO, FL, USA, December 21, 2015

/EINPresswire.com/ -- Flippers Pizzeria is once again supporting the Central Florida community by organizing food drop off stations for the Second Harvest Food Bank at participating Florida pizza locations.

This marks the fourth consecutive year that the pizzeria is coordinating food collection for this important local organization, which helps thousands of local individuals and families. According to the non-profit's website, during last year alone, more than 226,000 meals were provided to people in need throughout six Central Florida counties.

"It's easy to donate," said Kelly Pfister, Marketing Director at Flippers Pizzeria. "Simply visit any participating location with a non-perishable food item and drop it in the boxes set up inside—the drive runs throughout the entire month of December."

According to Second Harvest, Florida has the highest rate of food insecure children in the United States. Flippers Pizzeria encourages the local community to change that statistic by donating this holiday season.

"Throughout the year, we support local non-profits and provide fundraising opportunities for various organizations," said Ben Richardson, VP of Operations at Flippers Pizzeria. "This fourth annual Second Harvest food drive continues our promise of giving back to the communities we serve, especially during the holiday season."

Guests can enjoy a token of appreciation for their donation by taking advantage of the pizzeria's latest promotion—a free order of either Toscana Cheese Bread or Breadsticks when ordering online and requesting carry out with a minimum order of $15.00 or more. According to Richardson, the promotion lasts until December 25th.
