

McAlester author shares anticipation in turning fiction fantasy novel into blockbuster hit

Tate author Barbara Smitherman set to meet with prominent screenwriter to discuss possibilities of seeing captivating book on film.

MCALESTER, OKLAHOMA, UNITED STATES, December 31, 2015 /EINPresswire.com/ -- MCALESTER, Okla. – Tate author Barbara Smitherman is set to meet with a prominent screenwriter to discuss the possibilities of seeing her captivating book “Engaging the Sons of Darkness” on film.

Smitherman expressed her excitement for this opportunity, stating “I believe [the plot] would be a good fit for film production because it carries several themes that are at the very heart of our society and world at this time. It would bring forth a visual reality of the evil although unseen.”

“Engaging the Sons of Darkness” takes readers deep into the realm of the spiritual where unseen forces are at work influencing the lives, actions, and thoughts of people.
