

Marclick Announces Launch Offering Businesses Multiple Channels to Market Their Products Effectively

Small and medium sized businesses often face real challenges on how and where to offer their products to customers.

WILMINGTON, DELAWARE, USA, January 4, 2016 /EINPresswire.com/ -- For many businesses the only thing standing between them and success is having the right platforms to sell their products on. Setting this up has recently become much easier, thanks to Marclick. Marclick is a multiple channel selling provider that delivers everything needed to build an online shop and successfully sell products across many online channels. Clients couldn't be more pleased.

"We know the challenges businesses face trying to offer their products online and on social media," commented Hosam Abdellah, President of Marclick Inc. "We're offering a package that delivers in this area in a way that's really remarkable. From web sales, to selling across social media, we have it covered. Customers get a custom shop and can literally sell anywhere."

According to the company, the Marclick package, features remarkably elegant and attractive web designs; an online shop ; social media integration; access to an online marketplace; payment collection, without the need for a payment processor; a built in affiliate marketing system; high level encryption, backed by 256 bit encryption; and much more.

Both free and different levels of paid plans are available.

Early reviews from users have been very positive across the board.

Chris C., from Boston, recently said in a five star review, "Marclick was a real breakthrough for us. We have a great product, but on the internet end of things not much experience. Marclick made setting up that end simple, and now we're selling on our social media pages and from our online shop. Very highly recommended."
