

Destination Real Estate Releases New Mobile Website

Destination Real Estate, a boutique real estate brokerage, property management, and consulting firm in Brooklyn releases state-of-the-art mobile website.

BROOKLYN, NEW YORK, UNITED STATES, January 14, 2016 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Destination Real Estate is proud to announce the release of its new responsive website designed specifically with mobile users in mind. This new mobile website recognizes and adapts to the device a client is using and automatically constructs a custom user experience that works intuitively and seamlessly.

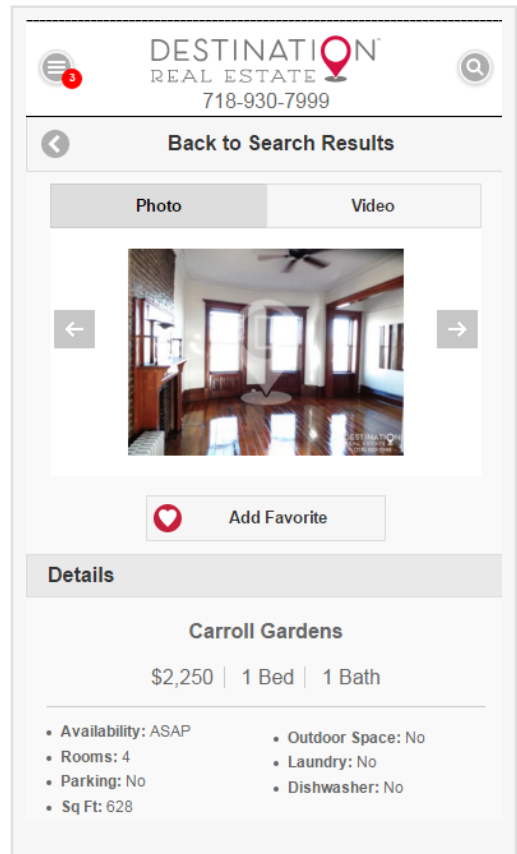

Users will now be able to search for apartments as well as sales and commercial listings more quickly and efficiently than ever before. Photos, location maps, video walkthroughs, floor plans are also integrated into the design so users can still access the same wealth of information as on the desktop website. New functionality includes creating a favorites list and a streamlined appointment request feature.

90% of home buyers search online before settling on a new home. Clean, straight-forward, design makes the difference between renting/purchasing a new home and moving on to the next option.

So far, Destination Real Estate's new mobile website has received glowing reviews from its user base -- a strong indication that this Brooklyn-based small business means business. Needless to say, there are several upgrades already in the pipeline... stay tuned!
