

America's Sweetest Race has Participants Running for Chocolate

Runners from around the state of Texas are getting ready for the Hot Chocolate 15K/5K Race in Dallas, which takes place in only a few short weeks.

DALLAS, TEXAS, USA, January 20, 2016 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Known as America's Sweetest Race, the Hot Chocolate 15K/5K was established in 2008 and first ran through the streets of Chicago. During the past 8 years, over 200,000 participants have ran for chocolate, making it one of the fastest growing race series in the country.

The Hot Chocolate 15K/5K will take place in Dallas, Texas on Saturday February 6, 2016, and begin at 7:30 AM. The race will be benefiting the Ronald McDonald House Charities, who is the official partner of the series.

Runners will be able to participate in either the full 15K or the 5K distance and visit several 'Sweet Stations' throughout the course, which will be offering delicious treats. At the post-race party, runners will be able to enjoy music, a family-friendly environment, chocolate fondue and collect their finisher's mugs filled with hot chocolate.

All of the registered participants will receive an award-winning goodie bag that will include a fleece-lined full-zip jacket and reusable drawstring bag. It is recommended for participants to wear proper running attire and accessories such as comfortable shoes, lightweight pants and running belts.

In order to help keep people organized while running, an innovative new running belt has been launched on Amazon, just in time for the racing season.

The Running Belt Max is made from materials such as waterproof Lycra, reflective fine-toothed zippers and a durable compartments for small items such as chewing gum or medications, two credit card slots, a rubberized earbud port, a metal key holder and sunglasses storage.

“Staying organized while running helps you stay on track.” explains Dave Chandler, the creator behind the Running Belt Max. “We strongly believe that a running belt is an essential accessory for people who love to run and actively participate in races. It provides them with peace of mind, knowing that their personal items will stay protected.”

The Running Belt Max is currently available on Amazon.com, where it is sold with a lifetime guarantee and two bonus gifts: a water bottle carrier with carabiner hook and a free eBook about running. Amazon Prime members are entitled to receive free two-day shipping on any order.
