The Expendables Movie Stunt Double For Jet Li On Board Missing Flight His Code Revealed

BRISBANE, QUEENSLAND, AUSTRALIA, February 2, 2016 /EINPresswire.com/ -- On the 8th of March 2014 Malaysia Flight MH370 with 227 Passengers and 12 flight crew on board departed from Kuala Lumpur International Airport En route to Beijing...The Boeing 777-200ER never reached its destination. And to this date there still is no clear answer as to its whereabouts. Ju Kun husband and father of two was returning home to see his family after being a co-fight choreographer for the series "Marco Polo" in Malaysia... Ju was a stunt double for Jet Li and was known for movies "The Forbidden Kingdom"- "Fearless"- "The Grandmaster"- And "The Expendables"... Because Ju was well known and his personal details were available to be accessed this gave me the opportunity to apply "The Hadassah Code" to his disappearance, which I did and My findings were interesting...He has a certain number in both of his Codes and this particular number is high in My statistics as a Countdown Code...Let Me explain... When I authored My book "The Hadassah Code" Proof Man's Days Are Numbered ISBN 9781742842509 back in 2012 I used Over a Hundred examples in My book and after I had correlated them I was then interested in finding out which number out of the system of numbers was the number that was the final number in some ones countdown (their last number counting down) Not every one has more than one number in their countdown But when they do the highest amount of examples have that same number Ju has in his codes.
