

“The Money Queen’s Guide” Author Cary Carbonaro Awarded ‘Managing Director MVP’ from United Capital Financial Advisers

Cary Carbonaro, CERTIFIED FINANCIAL PLANNER™ (CFP®) and author of The Money Queen’s Guide

WASHINGTON, DC, USA, February 4, 2016 /EINPresswire.com/ -- United Capital Financial Advisers (“United Capital”) held its annual Executive Summit Meeting on January 11th – 12th, 2016 at The Montage resort in Laguna Beach, California. During a ceremony held to honor the company’s Managing Directors for the past year, best-selling author Cary Carbonaro received the Most Valuable Player (MVP) award.

Part of Carbonaro’s contributions to the firm also included the success of her book, The Money Queen’s Guide. The book is targeted to help women obtain and help protect their financial success throughout their professional career and personal life, whether they’re just starting to take control of personal finances or want to better balance finances with family. The book helped land Cary major media exposure including Fox and Friends, Money.com, FinanceBuzz, Investors Business Daily, NewsDay, The Orlando Sentinel, Fox 35, WPIX TV, Reuters, NY1, the Miami Herald, CNN, US News and World Report and more.

“The Money Queen’s Guide is written for the woman who has it all, but struggles with the ability to balance her success with her future needs and goals. My goal with The Money Queen’s Guide is to help readers plan out their financial lives and plan for growth and success, avoiding the pitfalls that can derail financial security along the way,” said Carbonaro.

Ask Cary Carbonaro:

- Her top tips for how to grow and evolve your professional career and personal life.
- How women can make the most out of their finances today, while looking towards the future.
- How empowered women can balance their success with their future needs and goals.
- How to avoid the pitfalls that can derail financial security.
