

Janet Green of Guiding Inspiration to be Featured on CUTV News Radio

CHICAGO, ILLINOIS, USA, February 5, 2016 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Making a change is often fraught with fear, which causes people to resist change and continue down the familiar path.

If you really want change, the support of a professional coach can be invaluable.

Janet Green is a professional intuitive and holistic breakthrough coach and the founder of Guiding Inspiration where she teaches women how to empower themselves.

“I love working with others who have been pushing for change in their lives but need that extra support to help them find the key that reconnects them to their passions and unique gifts,” says Janet. “It’s so amazing to see people create miracles in their lives.”

Janet noticed that all women were struggling with the new idea that you can have it all: career and family. We are in a new paradigm where it is entirely possible to destroy the limiting beliefs that have held women back from accessing their infinite possibilities.

Indeed, Janet says tapping into our infinite wisdom is a process of remembering. Before we grew up, we had a lot of dreams, ambitions and ideas of how life was going to be. That’s the sweet spot. “What was it like when you still had the wonder of a child?”

Janet says her favorite client is a woman who has devoted herself to serving others for much of her lifetime, often at her own expense and is now ready to serve herself as well. Janet wants to help a woman find that place where she can actually be happy making money, having a great relationship, and being healthy while doing what she loves and making a difference in the world.

That could be considered a tall order, but women are expert multi-taskers and do it all the time. Janet's coaching just helps them to finesse their transformation.

CUTV News Radio will feature Janet Green in an interview with Jim Masters on February 9th at 1pm EST.
