

Corporater Announces Platinum Sponsorship of Gartner BI and Analytics Summit in London

Corporater to present a business management platform that offers both data and business driven design to support customers across the business execution process

STAVANGER, STAVANGER, NORWAY, February 9, 2016 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Corporater announced it is a platinum sponsor for the Gartner Business Intelligence and Analytics Summit in London. Corporater is a software vendor that offers a revolutionary business management platform that enables companies to get more value from their existing enterprise systems by turning data into business outcomes.

"While most Business Intelligence and Analytics systems are excellent for providing data insights through dashboards, reports, and storyboards, they rarely provide the business focus that drives business outcomes and results. Corporater provides a business modeling platform that offers both data and business driven design to support our customers' full business execution process, from data to outcomes," said Tor Inge Vasshus, CEO of Corporater.

During the summit, Corporater will present an informative session about how business driven design delivers successful business outcomes, and how to avoid the pitfalls that lead seven out of ten Business Intelligence and Analytics projects to fail.
