

WatchHerWork.com Launches Web Platform and National Tour for Career Women

Video interviews give no-nonsense advice on variety of career issues for women

HOUSTON, TX, USA, February 9, 2016 /EINPresswire.com/ -- WatchHerWork announces the launch of its new web platform for women, WatchHerWork.com, and the first leg of its nationwide tour. Founded in 2015 by CEO Denise Hamilton, WatchHerWork.com goes beyond the cookie-cutter career advice women often receive and provides new perspectives to help women make shrewd, powerful career moves.

Visitors to the website receive insightful and empowering solutions to their most pressing issues through revealing video commentary delivered by women who are at the top of their game professionally and are leaders in their respective industries.

"WatchHerWork.com is a place where women can show their vulnerability without fear or shame and receive in-depth, no-holds-barred career advice for practically any situation," says Hamilton. "How do you negotiate a compensation package or tell your boss you're pregnant? No one person has the right answer to every question. That's why I created WatchHerWork.com, to curate experiences and share valuable takeaways that women can use to address their most pressing career-related issues."

In addition to the site, the WatchHerWork.com national tour begins March, during which time women from various backgrounds will have the opportunity to share experiences and powerful lessons learned through video interviews that will be shared via the WatchHerWork.com digital portal.

"Our goal is to create a movement where women open up, become more transparent and impart wisdom and fresh perspectives that can mean the difference between success and failure in the workplace," Hamilton says.

The official launch party takes place Tuesday, March 1 at 5-7:30 p.m. at 1919 Wine & Mixology, located at 2736 Virginia Ave., Houston, TX, 77098.
