

ALEXANDRIA, VIRGINIA REALTOR® CATHERINE JOUET EARNS MILITARY RELOCATION PROFESSIONAL (MRP) CERTIFICATION

ALEXANDRIA, VIRGINIA, USA, February 10, 2016 /EINPresswire.com/ -- "My service to my Country is to assist Military families who have made great sacrifices for our Country to be able to live comfortably in their own homes. What better honor is there other than to serve those who have put their lives on the line to serve us?"

Catherine Jouet is a highly regarded top-producing agent with Keller Williams Realty in Alexandria, Virginia.

Catherine accomplished over $10 million in sales in 2016 and was named a TOP REAL ESTATE AGENT by Northern Virginia magazine. Catherine also holds an Associate Broker license in Virginia and is a member of the Institute of Luxury Homes Marketing.

Catherine says "One thing for sure is that I have great respect and admiration for the Military. My dad served in the Air Force and my Grandfather was a career Army Officer who served in WWII and retired as a Lieutenant Colonel. Now 97 years old, he was recently flown in on an honor flight for the WWII Memorial Ceremony. I truly sympathize with the life and careers of Military families. I understand the planning aspect and how important it is, especially if you have a family, to be able to understand the bigger picture of the community you are moving into. Life can be extremely complicated where I live and it takes a lot of planning, so I want to help. I have a commuting app that I share with my clients to make this process easier for those who are moving to my area who have no idea of the reality of living here."

Catherine Jouet

Catherine's service areas include, Alexandria, Arlington, Falls Church, Del Ray and many areas of Maryland and Washington DC attractive to Military professionals because of their proximity to Military bases. She is able to accommodate clients in the entire tri-state area and has relationships with other Military friendly Realtors in the Hampton Roads/Virginia Beach/Norfolk area of the state for those needing referral advice.

When Catherine and her family moved to the Fort Hunt area of Virginia in 2010, she transferred her license to Keller Williams, a company that prides itself on serving our Military.

Catherine is an active volunteer in the local schools and a regular sponsor of local sports teams. She is also passionate about animal welfare and volunteers with a local dog rescue. With her extensive social and professional network, Catherine has a wealth of resources to provide her clients with the latest information on local communities.

Catherine is from Mobile, Alabama where she enjoyed spending time at her grandparents' home on the waters of Mobile Bay. She loved the family time together swimming, fishing on the pier, barbequing and watching the sunsets.

After graduating from college in North Carolina and spending some time overseas as a Fulbright teaching scholar, Catherine married her long time beau Jason and they moved to Washington D.C. - where Jason worked at the Naval Research Laboratory and Catherine secured a position at Georgetown University where she recruited MBA students from around the globe for the highly ranked McDonough School of Business.

In 2004, while Jason was working for the Navy as a scientist at the Indian Head Naval Surface Warfare Center, they welcomed their two beautiful children into the world, Emmett and Lindsay, and Catherine stayed at home to raise them. At the time, the family lived on Capitol Hill where Catherine recalls the home-buying process. "I found it very interesting" she says, "We bought a home right by the Metro in Hill East. I was fascinated by the whole process. I liked my Realtor and I eventually went to work for him."

Catherine is proud to have earned the badge of a "Military Friendly Realtor®" and invites potential clients to read her reviews and ask for references. Catherine's team offers incentives for active and Veteran members of the armed forces who buy and sell a home with them.
