

New Satirical Donald Trump Game May Rile the Republican Frontrunner

A fun game based on Donald Trump's forays into business, politics, and bankruptcy

ROCKVILLE, MARYLAND, USA, February 10, 2016 /EINPresswire.com/ -- A new game of satire and politics by the innovators at Weasel & Backpedal, LLC will have the heads of pundits, bankers and most voters shaking in disbelief. The game is called "Donald Trump Bankrupts His Own Casino", and it is a tongue-in-cheek dice game designed to make fun of the casino-mogul-turned-candidate and his long history of bankruptcies. For players, it's also a fun way to make a buck.

The gag gift comes with two Donald Trump Presidential Stress Cubes, and on each cube is 5 custom images of The Donald in some kind of stressful emotion, plus one "You're fired" image as the Joker. Two or more players pay $1 each to roll the dice, and based on what comes up, the player can win, lose, or roll on margin, but loose it all if his / her luck goes south. The color instructions comes with a funny key describing winning and losing combinations of rolls, complete with a satirical comment tied to Trump's history in money and politics.

Money is kept in the "casino vault", and the game is over when one player is able to bankrupt the casino and take off with all the cash from the vault. Think a game of craps meets Free Parking on the Monopoly board.

This product is being sold on Ebay and Amazon for $15.95 shipping included, but it is available at the low price of $13.95 through the company's website at: www.presidentialstresscubes.com

"Donald Trump Bankrupts His Own Casino": A Dice Game

Directions: Every player deposits $2 into the any Trump Casino that has declared bankruptcy. Use a map of Coastal New Jersey as a board for rolling. If handy, Two player, minimum.
Goal: To bankrupt your own casino by flushing all your debt and taking home the casino's cash.
How to Play: Each person gets one roll of the dice, and its costs $1 to roll. Everyone has to roll, or you're a pusey! Below is a key to winning and losing rolls, all rolls not listed are neutral and only cost the $1 you had to pay to roll. Any winnings are taken from the casino vault, and any losses are put back in. If you throw a losing roll, you call roll one more time again, on margin, but if it is a losing roll, it will cost you double the amount of that last losing roll. Likewise, if you win the second roll, you get double the winning. The game is over when Trump Casinos declares bankruptcy (again).

	+		=	Lust and Fear: You got caught with the Central European farmer's daughter at the wrong end of a Katschnikov. Pay $2
	+		=	Anger and Insecurity: By banning all Muslims from entering the United States, you are nominated for President of the NRA. Win $1
	+		=	The Joker and Loneliness: By pissing off your entire campaign staff and driving them to quit, you lose the election. Pay $3
	+		=	Anger and Anger: You drove all Americans to bitterness and apathy about politics, you win the election. Win $4
	+		=	Lust and the Joker: At least one woman comes forward and accuses you of sexual misconduct, and Trump Towers is renamed Malia Towers. Pay $2
	+		=	Loneliness and Fear: This is Bullshit. The Donald is highly pressurized with self-esteem and he has fooled everyone with false modesty. Win $2
	+		=	Snake Eyes: You pulled off the big short on your own casino and now it is in the hands of creditors. Take everything in the casino vault and run.

In Bankruptcy, Everyone Wins!
