

SMi's premier Pre-Filled Syringes event series to launch in the West Coast

SMi Group proudly presents the inaugural Pre-Filled Syringes Conference, taking place in Mission Bay, San Diego, USA on June 6th -7th 2016.

LONDON, UNITED KINGDOM, February 12, 2016 /EINPresswire.com/ -- The medical device sector has been experiencing exponential growth over the recent years with the pre-filled syringes (PFS) market poised to account $6 billion revenue by the end of 2020.*

PFS has been gaining preference over parenteral drug delivery routes due to their high affordability, accuracy and safety. The ability of PFS to reduce drug wastage, increase shelf life and avoid cross-contamination with single-use application also help with vendors' market footprint and winning the heart of pharma/patients.

SMi Group's PFS series has been recognized as the premier must-attend event in the industry, providing a holistic view of device developments from design to manufacturing to packaging.

Emulating on regional success in EU and the East Coast, the inaugural West Coast conference features tailored content for California's innovative biotech hub, leveraging discussions and updates on latest PFS technologies and alternatives, such as auto-injectors and wearable injectors, ensuring commercial success and patients' safety.
