

SMI Reports: NATO agreed to enhance military presence in Eastern Europe

Join the only Military Logistics Conference Exclusively focused on the Eastern European Defence Community organised by SMI

LONDON, UK, UNITED KINGDOM, February 16, 2016 /EINPresswire.com/ -- "We have tripled the size of the NATO Response Force to more than 40,000 troops, with the new Spearhead Force at its core. And we have activated six small headquarters in our eastern Allies, and are setting up two more," NATO Secretary General Jens Stoltenberg

With the latest updates, SMI Group is proud to present the exclusive conference on Defence Logistics Eastern Europe (7-8 March 2016, Prague), gathering some of the leading regional and international military representatives within the defence logistics community including NATO, Belgium, Canada, Croatia, Czech Republic, Hungary, Norway, Poland, UK and many more. To view the preliminary list of attendees please visit www.defence-logistics.eu/ein

With all the chiefs of logistics from around Eastern Europe in attendance, discussing these challenges, can you afford not to be there?

If you haven't made a decision yet, here are your 5 key benefits of attending this conference:

- 1.) The Czech Ministry of Defence is in full support of the event with Brigadier General Jaromir Zuna, Director Support Division, confirmed as chairman of the event - Read the Letter of Invitation here www.defence-logistics.eu/ein
- 2.) 9 General Officers confirmed making this the most senior and focused logistics meeting in the region that will discuss the challenges of modernising the logistics forces through international cooperation and procurement, while at the same time going through extensive budget reforms.
- 3.) Dedicated focus on logistics training, modernisation programs and operational experience support combat forces - View the latest agenda here www.defence-logistics.eu/ein
- 4.) High ranking speakers from across Eastern Europe talking about operational experience, current and future capabilities, new projects and how they are overcoming budgetary challenges
