

Intuitive Coach and Spiritual Healer Jasmina Agrillo Scherr to be Featured on CUTV News Radio

PACIFIC PALISADES, CALIFORNIA, USA, February 17, 2016

/EINPresswire.com/ -- Resilience is something we all need. It's the energy of our higher intelligence. But there is more to resilience than bouncing back. It's about creating the new set-point of happiness, inner peace and vitality.

Jasmina Agrillo Scherr knows about resilience, but she also knows the joy of a life filled with spiritual blessings. Jasmina is an intuitive coach and spiritual healer who has spent more than 25 years inspiring people to access the power of their heart to impact consciousness, health, performance, creativity and relationships.

"I'm passionate about turning people on to the power of their heart and tuning in to what I call their miracle frequencies, the frequencies of care and joy and compassion and discernment," says Jasmina. "It's really to transform stress. We all have the power to transform our anxiety by connecting to our higher self. We actually create a life that is aligned with who we are and how we can best use our gifts and talents in the world."

Jasmina says her clients are people who are ready to take that next step to be the best they can be and live an authentic life. Jasmina transforms her clients' lives by increasing their conscious connection to their hearts

In addition to her work as a coach and healer, Jasmina is the author of the acclaimed Mirror of My Soul, Sanctum of My Heart, a spiritual memoir and inspiring treatise on how heart-resonance, intuition and resilience can get you past the tough times and into the thrive times. Since Jasmina's near-death experience fighting a brain tumor, she has found the strength to carry on and rise from adversity to a place of wholeness.

"It's been a lifelong journey to develop my spiritual connection. I've done a lot of research and I have a lot of experience with various techniques, but it all came back to the heart because the heart connection brings us into the center of our being in the now," says Jasmina. "I try to live in that space as much as I can."

Jasmina says the power of the heart is our spiritual intelligence, and that intelligence speaks to us throughout our day, but we have so many thoughts and emotions that we don't hear it. Still, there are synchronicities happening in our life all the time if we pay attention.

Says Jasmina: "I feel a deep need to share in the healing experiences of others because we're all in this together."

We all have the power to transform our anxiety by connecting to our higher self.
