

New Diamond Ring For Rent From IDoBorrow.com Makes Chic Brides Sparkle

I Do Borrow expands their line of diamond accessories with the Sonoma ring, letting chic brides glow without busting their budget.

PHOENIX, AZ, USA, February 23, 2016 /EINPresswire.com/ -- For brides whose ideal day ends with a chilly evening under the stars, holding a glass of the finest merlot the Wine Country has to offer, I Do Borrow, a jewelry rental boutique providing high-end jewels to sophisticated brides-to-be, has a new ring that will complete a romantic Napa Valley-themed wedding.

The "Sonoma" cocktail ring is 10k white gold paved and outlined with 1 carat of diamonds set in a stylish rectangular shape. The Sonoma ring for rent is a size 7 and retails for $4,200. Inspired by the romance and sophistication of the Wine Country, Sarah and Michelle chose the Sonoma to appeal to brides who are looking for a refined and formal addition to their diamond wedding jewelry collection.

"The Sonoma is so sophisticated and elegant," says Michelle Cattaneo, who co-owns I Do Borrow with her sister, Sarah. "You could say it was love at first sight when we discovered the ring! We know brides often have very discerning tastes, and want their wedding to be unique and perfect. We think this ring, as well as our other pieces, can help bring the elegant final touch to our brides' looks," (<http://idoborrow.com/>).

The sisters add to their collection of women and men's wedding accessories several times a year, and strive to offer on-trend accessories based on current jewelry styles. Brides who are interested in renting the Sonoma for their reception, wedding or rehearsal dinner can visit I Do Borrow and follow the reservation and deposit process.

"My favorite part of the Sonoma cocktail ring is the pave setting. It makes the ring look like a romantic cobblestone street, or delicate lace. This ring can complete so many different looks, and it's sparkly without being too flashy," Sarah said.

I Do Borrow created a unique system for renting fine jewelry for a wedding, reception, or rehearsal. Customers choose the rental wedding jewelry from the list of more than 30 pieces, and then select the borrow date and return date. The company ships the jewelry rental directly to the brides with a pre-paid return envelope. With rental rates ranging from $15 to $50, I Do Borrow brings high-end diamond jewelry to budget-friendly brides.
