FORT LAUDERDALE, FLORIDA, USA, February 29, 2016 /EINPresswire.com/ -- February 10, 2016, Fort Lauderdale: A boat is just a hull and deck that is capable of floating on water if there is no detailing and no features. A luxury boat will be fully equipped and decked to be a second home. It will provide all the amenities essential to give a comfortable time and experience on the waters for weeks without calling port. This is where the need for professional interior and external detailing comes in to ensure that a boat remains in its peak form. Freedom Yacht Services provides superior detailing services that can help differentiate a true luxury yacht from the ordinary ones.

Exterior Boat Detailing

The company offers comprehensive exterior detailing services including thorough washing. Freedom Yacht spokesperson provides some details on how their detailers can clean a yacht in two different ways, "We can either wash your boat while its launched or haul it out of water and clean it. Both ways we cover each and every inch to remove all spots. It will be best that the boat is hauled out of water for a thorough cleaning."

Their exterior detailing includes cleaning hatches, removing water stains and those hard salt formations, and gutter tracks, and any spots.

"This will be followed by waxing and compounding your boat. We specialize in this service. Our detailers can turn your boat to look like brand new, and we are sure to bring a smile to your face. We provide full range of exterior detailing including waxing, oxidation removal and gel-coating," the spokesperson added.

The other aspects of the company's detailing services include UV protection coating, paint/gel coating, nano-coating, metal polishing, sealing, teak deck sanding/refinishing, bottom cleaning, inspecting rudder and zinc, and much more.

Interior Boat Detailing

Daily wear and tear and the spoils of parties are more than enough to give the boat interiors a harsh treatment. Freedom Yacht's comprehensive boat interior detailing services help restore it in its pristine condition. "A luxury yacht cannot be complete without a well maintained interior. And that's what we are here to ensure,” the company spokesperson added.

“Interior boat detailing is another one of our specialization and we can take care of everything. Carpet cleaning, preventing bad odor, dry cleaning, interior cleaning, and stowage detailing are just one aspect of our job”, he said.

Part of the interior detailing services offered by this Fort Lauderdale company include vessel walkthrough, air conditioning and refrigerator/freezer inspection, bilge inspection, and thorough interior cleaning.

The spokesperson further added, “When we receive your boat for detailing, our goal is to restore it to its original untouched condition. Although we know that’s not 100 percent possible, but we are still able to deliver the best-possible results you can find anywhere.”
