

Revert Retains ISO 9001:2008, ISO 14001:2004, and OHSAS 18001:2007 Certifications for Next 3 Years

The company has been consecutively certified to the ISO 9001:2008, ISO 14001:2004, and OHSAS 18001:2007 standards since 2013.

BOULDER, COLORADO, USA, March 1, 2016

/EINPresswire.com/ -- Revert, Inc., a global leader in delivering on-site data sanitization and enterprise IT asset disposition services to customers worldwide, today announced that the company has been recommended for continued registration for the international certification of its Quality, Environmental, and Occupational Health and Safety Management Systems. Rigorous external reassessment audits were conducted by Platinum Registration, confirming that Revert continues to meet all elements of the scope of registration and effectively conform to the requirements set forth in the ISO 9001:2008, ISO 14001:2004, and OHSAS 18001:2007 International Standards.

In addition, Revert has reaffirmed its support for responsible data destruction by retaining its membership in the National Association for Information Destruction (NAID) in 2016.

"The recommendations for continued registration of our Quality, Environmental, and Occupational Health and Safety Management Systems through the ISO 9001:2008, ISO 14001:2004, and OHSAS 18001:2007 International Standards clearly demonstrates our company's uncompromised commitment to continuous improvement and delivering services that exceed the expectations of our partners and our customers," said Glenn Jacobsen, Chief Operating Officer. "Further, our continued membership in NAID recognizes their efforts to set the industry standard for responsible data destruction."
