

Intuition Coach Peggy Sue Skipper to be Featured on CUTV News Radio

HOUSTON, TEXAS, USA, March 25, 2016 /EINPresswire.com/ -- You are (or have been for much of your life) a pleaser.

You have difficulty asking for what you want or need.

You have been in some kind of abusive cycle.

You have always felt different.

You have been told you are too sensitive.

You tend to ignore your physical well being

You have a very active imagination.

If you can relate to four of these seven prompts, there's a very good chance you are a highly intuitive person.

After nearly 20 years of coaching, Peggy Sue Skipper discovered she attracted a very specific type of client: they were all highly intuitive. Today, Peggy Sue specializes in working with highly intuitive people to facilitate healing and create their ideal life.

"Individuals who are highly intuitive are fairly prevalent in our society but it's not talked about," says Peggy Sue. "No one is acknowledging this gift. As a result, no one learns how to use it properly. There are ethics that go with it that we don't learn anything about."

According to Peggy Sue, there are degrees of intuition just as there are degrees of musical ability. Some people learn to play a guitar by taking lessons and practicing. Some people come out of the womb strumming. This same phenomenon can happen with intuition. Inevitably, these individuals operate just a little bit differently in the world but don't understand why.

"If you look at the field of psychiatry, there's no definition for psychic," says Peggy Sue. "What's happening to these people? They're marginalized. They're misdiagnosed. They're self-medicating. They don't understand why they are the way they are. How do we help them?"

"Highly intuitive people generally don't go to psychic school and yet they receive information on a regular basis. Learning discernment for how highly intuitive individuals can use their gift is paramount to living comfortably in this world."

Peggy Sue has created a program that provides highly intuitive people with an “All Body Simultaneous Healing Experience.” It’s a 12-week program that covers the physical, emotional, mental and the energetic.

“You’re going to learn so much about your energetic operation in the world and when it’s appropriate to use our gifts,” says Peggy Sue. “It’s groundbreaking because there are so many of us out there and no one is looking at it this way. I’m seeing such tremendous results. My clients are more comfortable in their skin. They worry less about what people think of them and they can redirect their focus to who they are and what they’re doing.”

CUTV News Radio will feature Peggy Sue Skipper in an interview with Jim Masters on March 29th at 11am EST.
