

The High School Golf National Championship to be Held in Litchfield Park, AZ

The High School Golf National Championship will be held November 26-27, 2016 at the Wigwam Resort Gold Course in Litchfield Park, AZ hosting 50 teams.

SURPRISE, ARIZONA, USA, March 25, 2016 /EINPresswire.com/ -- The High School Golf National Championship will be held November 26-27, 2016 at the Wigwam Resort Gold Course in Litchfield Park, Arizona.

This High School Golf Tournament is unlike any High School Golf event in the country. The most elite High School Golf teams in the United States will be in competition in November. These teams will gather to compete and showcase skills to earn the High School Golf National Championship Team title.

This High School Golf event will host 25 Boys teams and 25 girls teams (250 players) of the most talented players composed of rising freshmen through graduated seniors. This tournament will increase High School Golf team participants's National exposure.

The High School Golf National Championship will have several college golf coaches in attendance searching for top players in the event. With a staff with several years experience in junior golf and helping players move to the next level, this event is the most beneficial High School Golf Tournament a team can attend.

The High School Golf National Championship is a non-conference-affiliated event.
