LAS VEGAS, NEVADA, UNITED STATES, March 31, 2016 /EINPresswire.com/ -- The World Junior Match Play Championship will be held July 23-27, 2016 at the premier golf facility Aliante Golf Club in Las Vegas, Nevada.

This prestigious junior golf tournament is unlike any junior golf Championship in the World and is comparable to the World Stars of Junior golf. The most elite and competitive junior golfers from around the World will be in contention in July. These tremendous junior golf players will gather to compete and showcase skills to earn the World Junior Match Play Championship title.

This grand junior golf Championship will host 150 of the most talented players from across the globe who are in the hunt for the prestigious World Junior Match Play Champion title. This junior golf tournament will increase World Junior Match Play Championship participants' National exposure and help them gain competitive golf experience.

The World Junior Match Play Championship will have several college golf coaches in attendance searching for top players in this junior golf event. With a staff with several years experience in junior golf and helping players move to the next level, this event is the most beneficial junior golf tournament a junior golf player can attend.
