In Association with: 74th PetroAfricanus - World Upstream Club

PARIS, FRANCE, April 7, 2016 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Global Pacific & Partners: CVG in Association with the 74th PetroAfricanus - World Upstream Club invites your participation at their Oil & Gas reception at the Intercontinental Paris Le Grand.

- Date: Thursday 28th April 2016
- Venue: Intercontinental Paris le Grand, France
- Registration: 5.30pm onward – Debussy Room 1st Floor
- Attire: Business
- Guest Registration (no fees)

Their Guest Speaker is Bijan Khajehpour the Managing Partner of Atieh International Vienna, Austria, and he will be speaking on The Shifting World: Iran and the Global Gas-LNG Game

Iran's opening in oil and gas will reshape the geo-economics and competitive nature of gas-LNG in the Middle East, Central Asia, Europe and North Africa, including worldwide supply networks to markets in Western and Eastern Europe, now dependent on Russian gas supplies and LNG and pipelines from Africa and elsewhere.

Bijan Khajehpour is Managing Partner of Atieh International, the Vienna-based international strategy arm of the Atieh Group, and senior associate at Menas Associates (London). He co-founded the Atieh Group in 1994 to advise international companies on investing in Iran, and is widely recognised as a leading analyst on Iranian oil/gas and energy as well as political economy, acting for global clientele and firms inside and outside of Iran. He has published widely in Al-Monitor, including on the Caspian, oil and energy security in the Persian Gulf, and he completed graduate studies in management and economics in Germany and the UK, plus holds the Doctorate of Business Administration (International School of Management, Paris).
